

THE CONCERT @UTS: JAPAN AID 11-3-11

We are organising a fund-raising concert with generous support from University of Technology, Sydney and the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

The recent devastating event in East Japan has become one of the most horrifying natural disaster cases in the world history. Despite the extremely short notice, a number of professional musicians have generously agreed to perform for this event.

The Performers: Satsuki Odamura & Sawai Koto Ensemble
Aiko Goto
Waratah

Admission: $20 (Student concession $10) Extra donation is welcomed

Date: Wed 23 March, 2011
Time: 6pm
(The concert commences at 6:30pm)
Venue: Aerial UTS Function
Centre,
Level 7, 235 Jones St
Ultimo NSW 2007

At this time, a week later of this event, the figured death toll is over 6900, more than 10,000 people are still missing, and the number is still rising. The number of people who have lost their house is estimated at 450,000. It is our hope that your donation will help to ease the pain and suffering that many are currently experiencing in Japan.

All proceed of the evening will be donated to the Red Cross.

Please encourage your friends and family to join us at this event.
